

SALLY SCIENTIST

52 Willow Ave.
Nowhere, ME. 02020
(555) 508-0202
sscientist@unity.edu

42 Murdock Drive
Box 645
Unity, ME 04988
(207) 948-3131

EDUCATION

- Unity College, Unity, Maine
B.S. Ecology and minor in Environmental Policy

Expected graduation: May 2009

RELEVANT COURSE WORK

- Marine Biology: Origin & development of sea life, principals of productivity, benthic, & pelagic life forms
- Environmental Plant Physiology: growth, development & reproduction in vascular plants, carbon balance, water relations, mineral nutrition, responses to environmental stress
- Advanced Ecology: Population growth, limiting factors, competition, predation and community structure emphasizing evolutionary interaction
- Advocacy, Ethics, & the Environment: theoretical & piratical ground work, planning campaigns, built coalitions, conduct focus groups, ethics, plan & carryout advocacy campaign

RELEVANT PROJECTS

Project studying abiotic and biotic characteristics of mountain ponds and lakes

- Conducted surveys of the abiotic and biotic characteristics of mountain ponds and lakes
- Measured water chemistry in-situ using multiparameter meter
- Quantified physical characteristics of sampling site such as site basin aspect, origin, and vegetation community types
- Surveyed mountain lakes and streams for amphibians, macroinvertebrates and fish

Research and plant studies

- Completed fungus correlation project showing species' preferred height ranges
- Compared organic and inorganic fertilizers and effects on soils for term paper
- Conducted a research paper on Plum Curculio (Conotrachelus nenuphar)
- Researched and wrote paper on the sea grass beds ecosystem of the Florida Keys

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Extensive work with Pine Barren ecosystem including restoration work
- Seasoned educating experience on environmental topics including tide pool exploration
- Comprehensive knowledge of coastal ecology
- Backpacking skills with leave no trace ethics
- Campsite maintenance including platform tent assembly and carpentry
- CPR and First Aid certification
- Map and compass skills
- Great written and oral communication skills

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

- Counter Staff, Burger King,
- Lifeguard, Nowhere City Pool
- Deli/Meat Counter Staff, Joe's Market,

Nowhere, ME, 9/06-present
Nowhere, ME, 7/06-8/06
Nowhere, ME., 10/04-10/05